NUMBER 52.

BOLDLY HOLD UP 1 LADY OF THE HOUSE

Demanded Money But Are Frightened Away From House By . Her Loud Screams.

VISIT SHINN RESIDENCE.

Ransacking House and Stealing Ail Their Clothing and Leaving Doors Wide Open.

The Rimers and the Hardys may end the burglaries and pilferings in the city lock-up. Clarksburg, for the city seems to be infested with numerous other burg-

The latest reported occurred at pon their return home a day or ago they discovered evidences of ed on the railroad hereabouts that were open and the windows were all of the community and especially broken out of the house. There among the railroad men. were numerous tracks on the floors and B. & O Officer Powell and City from basement to garret.

The drawers of dressers and shelves of wardrobes had been denothing else was carried off.

one of the rear windows.

prehended, unless they should re- lock-up. Robinson had quite a turn, when those on watch may nab them before they are aware of it.

Shortly after 7 o'clock Tuesday payment of a fine of $3 and costs. evening two strangers acted mys-There was strong evidence that they tered put them in that class. One or any contagious disease. Officer of them knocked at the front doof of a residence and the same was answered by one of the lady occupants. When she inquired what he wanted, lately grasped the situation and result of a bruise. The hand was screamed at the top of her voice. It be well in a day or so. disappeared very quickly and were not seen afterward at that point on the street. So far as has been Ull. learned they abandoned their purpose of operating on that street.

ELK DISTRICT

Elk district collecting taxes. He ity M. E. church, on Ben street. spent Monday theer and was there Dr Thomas will lecture at the spent Monday there and was there Water street school hall on Thursthe taxes in that district are gen- day night. His subject will be erally reduced and that all seem "Observations of the South." Dr. greatly pleased with the workings of the new tax laws. He looks for a the time of the race riot there and the following menu which was serve much heavier Republican vote in was an unwilling witness to those that district this year on account of horrors. Being an eye witness he the big reductions in taxes. Elk will be able to give us a true version district has been Democratic, but of that sad event. If you desire to tax reform is making it Republi- know the truth about that matter hear Dr. Thomas.

Catching up the maudlin words of a drunken man, the Daily News indulged in yellow journalism headlines when in Tuesday evening edition it published a story be confined in jail and sentenced with sensational caption that a lepto state's prison, but that will not er had been arrested and placed in

> This bit of joundice was written around the simple fact that a drunken man was arrested.

The arrested man in question was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles George W. Robinson, assistant sec-M. Shinn, on Hickman street in a tion foreman of the B. & O. railthickly settled section of the city. road, who has been working on the Mr. and Mrs. Shinn have been at B. &O. in Clarksburg and vicinity Pennsboro where he is engaged on for the last fifteen years. He is he brick work of a large building. married and at present resides in Meadowbrook. So long has he workburglary. The front and rear doors he is well known among the people Policeman Brooks took him to the lock-up. He has a sore on one of his hands, the result of a bruise suspleted of their contents. All of tained while at his work on the Mrs. Shinn's dresses and other railroad. Taking advantage of the clothing had bee ntaken, as well as gullibility of a representative of the house. So far as could c detected drunken man, Robinson exhibited Clarksburg lodge of Elks Tuesday Fistrict Deputy Grand Exalted Bullions. the sorehand to him and in a spirit evening in the dining hall of the An examination of the premises of drunken humor told him he had resulted in the information that the burglars scaled a high stone wall in it on him" if he didn't get out. rear of the residence and gained entrance into the house by breaking to frighten the people of the community out of their wits by pubme of the rear windows.

There is no clue whatever and it

There is no clu is not likely the burglars will be appresence of a leper in the city laugh over the matter when in police court this morning he was tried portant; step of initiation: Ralph for drunkenness and was sentenced for drunkenness and was sentenced to jail for five days in default of the ington H. Smith, of Weston: C. J. to jail for five days in default of the

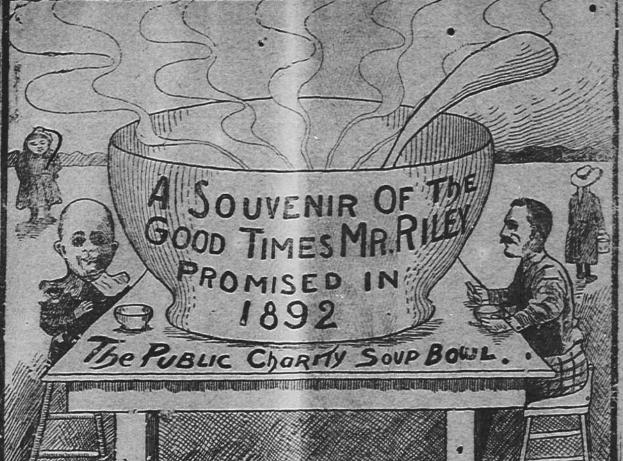

To convince the News crowd that Robinson did not have the leprosy physician to examine him in the lock-up Wednesday morning. The examination revealed the fact that Robinson had a sore on his hand the the door of the lodge rooms on dressed by the doctor and will like-

Rev. I. L. Thomas, D. D., field igent of the Board of Church Extension, the first colored man ever IS PLEASED appointed to that position, will pay Nov 1. He will be the guest of the at the head table, at which were Sheriff John M. Flanigan is in Rev. John M. Beane, pastor of Trin-

TIN PLATE WORKER HAS LEG CRUSHED BY LOCOMOTIVE.

G. G. McKinley, an employe of and on stepping out from behind where there is no regular crossing street.

the Phillips sheet and tin plate some fraight ears, the switching enmills in the eastern part of the city, alongside the wheels with one leg was run over by a switching engine across the rail. Wheels of the enon the Baltimore & Ohio railroad gine passed over the limb, cutting it

Rusticana; Evalted Ruler Samu

tig Jodge spoke-up Our District

Deputy," and Frank Minnis and song "Auld Lang Syne, was sung.

In his toast, District Deputy

Black took occasion to commend in lodge and complimented the officers and past officers for their work in bringing it about. He said the Clarksburg lodge had a record that

The following prices are prevail-

Wheat No. 1 s ring... 871

No. 2 Red Wint r. 801

Wholesale. Retail.

Another one of those delightful | Bentley responded to "Elkisin" affairs that will linger long in the Prof. Smith amin wan applaus memory of the Elks in this vicinity | bg and loud when he sang Hawwho pattended was given by the lev's "Because I Love You Dear Waldo hotel following the initia- was paving his first official visit to

for membership with all the pomp and ceremony incident to the im-Hver, E. J. Bland and S. W. Moon, of Sutton; L. H. Rogers, L. Wayman Ogden, E. M. Biddle and At the conclusion of the initia- | 'ny lodge in the country could well H. O. Biddle, of Clarksburg.

tion the lodge formed in a body and be proud of. marched to the Waldo hotel. Forming in twos, the line reached from Third street to the main entrance doors of the Waldo. At the hotel Prof. Crowe's orchestra greeted the Elks with a selection as they marched into the dining hall where the ing in the local grain market: low lights and table decorations were suggestive of the wierd and Corn No. 2 vellow ... 521/2 mystical Hallowe'en. Candle lights Corn No. 2 white 521/2 beamed from the inside of the little pumpkin and fruit manikins at each plate which were individual sou- Oats No. 2 Whit ... 384 affability and graciousness presided seated the officers and past officers of the lodge, in the capacity of toast master, and when the company had assembled he asked them to be seated in the words of Kipling: "Let us sit down and consider these things." That the consideration was ed in nine courses: Oyster Cocktail

Celery Temato Bonillon

Radishes

Boiled Red Snapper-Nonpariel Potatoes-Chateau

Boiled Spring Chicken on Toast Candied Yams

Punch, Creme de Menthe

Lobster Salad

Chocolate Ice Cream Assorted Cakes

American Cheese Wafers

Cafe Noir

tracks near the mills Wednesday nearly of He was taken to the toasts came and they proved the at- November meeting Thursday, 2:30 forenoon and seriously injured. hospital in an ambulance at once fair to be an intellectual feast as p. m., at the residence of Mrs. E. M. Physicians at St. Mary's hospital and the injuries attended to. At well as a repast for the physical Goodman, Lee street. Every memamputated his left leg shortly after present he is resting as comfertably man. Brother J. Ed Law respond- her of the society, it is urred, tohis admittance to that institution, as could be expected. Mr. McKined to the tonst "Our Absent gether with their friends, should be McKniley was crossing the rail- lev is a single man and made his Brothers;" Prof. A. J. Smith was road tracks near the mills at a point home with his brother on Mechanic heartily encored when he sang the solo "Sicilliani" from Cavelleria The Home Misisonary society of Lan.

Manager Gazley of the Waldo hotel tenders the visiting gentlemen an informal reception in the several other brothers including, a lobby of the hotel this evening at rooms at 7:30 o'clock and after number of visitors also enlivened which there will be a concert by an the occasion by the rendition of orchestra. The visitors will call 5 :30 for Salem and other points.

The following repail prices prevail in the local produce market: Eggs, 30 cents dozen.

Country onions, 40 cents peck. Chicken, 16 cents Ib.

Oysters, 45 and 50 cents quart.

OF THE DAY

French Peas will be in evidence and Halloween | Tuesday evening at a jack o' lan- better it will be and the more will tives, strung along the track for six refreshments will be served. **********

ies of floral tableaux interspersed with music, vocal and instrumental, will be the feature of the evening. After the tableaux ice ergam and cake will be served.

Forty-five members of the wholesale merchants' board of the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, trrived in the city Wednesday evening at 4:30 o'clock on the special train from Weston on their seventeeth annual trade extension tour and were accorded a royal welcome by a number of merchants and representatives of the local board of Country butter, 30 cents lb. Creamery butter, 33 cents lb. Irish potatoes, 80 cents bushel. Sweet potatoes, 30 cents peck. Apples, $1.00 bushel. Cranberries, 15 cents quart. Celery, 5 cents stalk. Cabbage, 2 cents lb. Canning pears, 25 cents peck.

There is no reason why the in-1.00 vader of the sancitiy of men's homes 1.00 should be sent to the legislature. 48 Every man whether he belongs to venirs and the floral decorations Hay No. 1 Treothy. 19 25 20.00 church or not should not consent to hostess to the Supreme Lady Mac- ovster supper in the church Thurscribers at a tacky party to be given day evening from 5 to 10 o'clock, as leaders, but let the leader be ty-five per cent greate capacity than at her home on Wilson street in serving supper for 25 cents. All what he may the success of this was ever dreamed of at the time of Glenmoore this evening. The tackiest looking person present will receive a prize. Fortune felling and games suitable to the mysterious night on which the party is given to about twenty of his little friends

The lodies of the Johntown aux-

The Ladies' Aid Society of the When the cigars were lighted the Lutheran church will held its

Mrs. Robert Reed will be the Goff chapel will have a chicken and come from our public schools. are invited to attend.

tern party, and was assisted by his be accomplished. mother and Miss Renshaw. The dining room was lit with jack o' lenteres and candles. The host and more than any other one factor the names of the architects carved iliary will give an entertainment on lanterns and candles. The host and more than all other factors coming. Nov. 10. A ser-little Miss Frances Moore led the ves, more than all other factors coming the marble of our grandest and saturday evening. Nov. 10. A ser-little Miss Frances Moore led the ves, more than all other factors coming the marble of our grandest and little Miss Frances Moore led the ves, more than all other factors coming the marble of our grandest and little Miss Frances Moore led the ves, more than all other factors coming the marble of our grandest and little Miss Frances Moore led the ves, more than all other factors coming the marble of our grandest and little Miss Frances Moore led the ves, more than all other factors coming the marble of our grandest and little Miss Frances Moore led the ves, more than all other factors coming the marble of our grandest and little Miss Frances Moore led the ves, more than all other factors coming the marble of our grandest and little Miss Frances Moore led the ves, more than all other factors coming the marble of our grandest and little Miss Frances Moore led the ves, more than all other factors coming the marble of our grandest and little Miss Frances Moore led the ves, more than all other factors coming the marble of our grandest and little Miss Frances Moore led the ves, more than all other factors coming the marble of our grandest and little Miss Frances Moore led the ves, more than all other factors coming the marble of our grandest and little Miss Frances Moore led the ves, more than all other factors coming the marble of our grandest and little Miss Frances Moore led the ves, more than all other factors coming the marble of the marble of the marble of our grandest and little Miss Frances Moore led the ves, more than all other factors coming the marble of the guests into the dining room where a dainty repast was served. After this games were played until 7:30, other agencies, far from it, raftier praises of the public school idea of when the merry little guests left for exalt them, for in every agency we America? Who shall be the first their homes in fine humor and with can think of we find the men and to kiss that hand that has penned pleasant recollections of the genial women coming from our public the public school imprimatur upon little bost. Those present were lit-schools making them successful in the life and work of ninety-five per rinia Wood. Maud Hall, Florence their different spheres. Renshaw, Frances Moore, Lena Post and Lucy Meyers, and Messrs. public schools is to train and devel-mother of all republics, and quee Harold Post, Warren Moore, Guy op good citizens. Our great central among all nations?

"Ind Orville Garrett, Stanley Lynch." thought must then be how to develop "Every inheritance carries" Harold Thompson, Russell Rector, and train every child so that he may great responsibilities. It is es Dan Howard, Charles Gaylord, make of himself the most it is pos-William Meyers and John Clana-sible for him to make, that he may inherited fortune. You cannot

VERY FINE ADDRESS

Body of Salem College

At Salem.

Is Ably and Eloquently Discussed By Next County Superintendent of Free Schools.

norsince for county superintencient have teachers who look beyond the and Marcus L. Riblett, for the legis-lature, addressed the faculty and insight into the future reveal to each student body of Salem College on how and each girl, each young man Tuesday. Mr. Webb said in part on and each young woman. glorious "The Mission of Our Public visions of their possible destiny, the during long centuries, some por success and happiness tions of the human race were slowly rescued from the savage state great men before our boys and citls but even now left entirely to them- without impressing upon their selves during many successive gen- minds the necessary sacrifice and erations despite all the influence of toil by which these heights are heredity, human beings would lapse gained, by so doing we do them an into a state of barbarism if not injustice and perchance pave the

and to still further improve the race of greatness there are no pathways. the great educational systems of the He who would reach them must world have been evolved and estab-clamber over rock and precipice mlished, and probably no were have til the summit is gained. On the the desired ends been so fully realizing of honor there is no smooth ed as in the United States.

the worth of education, establish- the raging, surging billows. The ed the first public school in America mountain byways of fame are strewn Nature's God saw fit to endow with many a lifeless form unwilling Massachusetts with only two articles to pay the price necessary to reach of commerce, granite and ice, but its crest. The shores of greatness are today she ranks as one of our rich-covered with many victims unwil est states. Her flinty rocks are ing to breast the cruel breakers. We changed, by ideas and skilled hands must remember every great man into things of beauty and worth who has won distinction and honor She is one of our greatest manu- has paid the price demanded by mafacturing state, when she must country not to doubt their own abilbring her raw material from else-lities. This fact alone has wrecked where, then send forth the finished many a promising youth in the beproduct to the markets of the ginning of his career.

within the state has ten months of Fail at times, you may. But I be-school. She has a compulsory school lieve the grandest thing this side of tion, and are being educated contest a second and a third time Skille dworkmen fill her mills, and with undaunted courage and inas a result she is prosperous and creased energy.

when properly used. "Granting, then, that a free peo-credit of their success, cause or causes of this intelligence? more closely resembles the worst What makes our people what they log school cabin among the stumps are in this respect? Will we not on the last range of the Canadian find the cause in our public schools? frontier, than the Twentieth Cer-It seems so self-evident that it tury Limited, or the Kaiser Wilneeds no argument to prove it. es- belin resemble the most forgeous pecially to those who have made the dream of Stephenson or Fulton, and subject a matter of study. Our yet the civilized world one thousand colleges are doing much but searce- veers from now will still be placly one in ten who receives a school ing laurel on the brow of Stepheneducation graduate from them son and Fulton; while even now no Nine-tenths of our men and women one knows who invented any one of

as leaders, but let the leader be ty-five per cent greate capacity than leadership depends greatly upon the the Chicago World's Fair, or that intelligence of his followers. wise leader knews this and the to freight more than can be carried Master Randall Squires was host nearer he can assimilate with them in one thousand mammoth freight

> "Then the conclusion arrived at house will be glorified forever and is, that our public school today, forever, while we neglect to read

Before the Faculty and Student this, the lest and freest land of the world.

"Teachers, we are the ones to whom his mission has been intrusted, in our faithfulness depends MISSION OF OUR SCHOOLS the future of our nation; for some one has truly said: 'As the rippling circles of the lake go on and on to the distant shores, so the influence of a teacher, whether good or bad. reaches to future generations, ves even to eternity." "Then to accomplish the true mis-Cyrus E. Webb, Republican sion of the public schools, we must goal for every one-noble manhood "By crude system of education and noble womanhood, and lives of

"Too often we hold the lives of way to their failure in life. Let "To prevent such a dire exlamit; us teach that to the mountain peaks sailing. He who would traverse it "The Pilgrim Fathers realizing most brave the sandy shoals and

"Teach the future citizens of our

"Every faithful endeavor put "We find the answer in her public forth will be rewarded in the same school system. Every little hamlet measure in which it was executed law, also a law prohibiting child heaven is formed in the young man labor. In other words, the people or young woman who after failing of Massachusetts believe in educa-honestly and squarely enters the

"If the aspirations of such men "Our wealth is enormous, we can as Lincoln and Garfield were kindonly think of the billion of dollars led, their purposes knit, the founnecessary to purchase our territory tains of hope discovered in those and this is doing much in making stray weeks of rural school his. us what we are today, for money is when they had time to think to rea great powe rand does great good solve, to energize their souls, then to that school largely belongs the ple must be an enlightened people. "What did Watt ever know of and also granting that our nation steam, Stephenson of the locomois leading the world today in every- tive. or Fulton of the steamboat? the improvements of the last ten "We need our college graduates years that gives a freight ear twell-A enables one steamer on the Atlantic without losing his leadership, the cary drawn by twenty-five locomo-

> "In saving this we do not belittle "Who shall adaquately sound the cent of the brain and conse "We believe the mission of the which have made the United states ome best fitted to be a citizen of (Continued on page four